

Grayhawk's Annual Book Club Favorites

Each year, Grayhawk's book clubs come together to share the stories that inspired, moved, and delighted them most. From page turning mysteries to heartfelt memoirs, this collection reflects the wide range of tastes across our community. These recommended books offer something for every type of reader. Looking for your next great read? Start with these book club favorites.

HISTORICAL FICTION:

Becoming Madame Secretary****

By Stephanie Dray

The Frozen River****

By Ariel Lawhon

The Glassmaker****

By Tracy Chevalier

A Gentleman in Moscow

By Amor Towes

An American Duchess

By Sharon Page

Black Woods, Blue Sky

By Eowyn Ivey

Culpability

By Bruce Holsinger

Horse

By Geraldine Brooks

James

By Percival Everett

Memorial Days

By Geraldine Brooks

Paris Express

By Emma Donoghue

The Diamond Eye

By Kate Quinn

The Huntress

By Kate Quinn

The Women of Chateau Lafayette

By Stephanie Dray

Trust

By Hernan Diaz

West With Giraffe's

By Lynda Rutledge

LITERARY FICTION:

The Correspondent****

By Virginia Evans

Buckeye

By Patrick Ryan

Mona's Eyes

By Thomas Schlessler

The River is Waiting

By Wally Lamb

Wild Dark Shore

By Charlotte McConaghy

Atmosphere

By Taylor Jenkins Reid

Lula Dean's Little Library of Banned Books

By Kirsten Miller

Small Great Things

By Jodi Picoult

The Book Club for Troublesome Women

By Marie Bostwick

Wish You Were Here

By Sanaz Toosi

MEMOIR:

All the Beauty in the World

By Patrick Bringley

Heart of a Stranger

By Angela Buchdahl

The Patriot: A Memoir

By Alexei Novalney

The Son Does Shine: How I Found Life and Freedom on Death Row

By Anthony Ray Hinton

NONFICTION:

Dangerous Rhythms: Jazz and the Underworld

By T.J. English